The Draycott Hotel – Sloane Square

With understated elegance and authentic English grandness, the Draycott is more than just a five star town house hotel in London. Formerly known as Cliveden Town House, it occupies three red-brick Edwardian homes just around the corner from Chelsea's Sloane Square. Staying in this elegant town house will evoke a sense of old world charm and elegance for which the city of London is so famous.

As a guest at the Draycott, you'll enjoy rest and respite in luxurious, tastefully decorated suites. Most of the rooms also have their own cosy fireplace and some have a bay window that overlooks the peaceful and private garden below. As with any five star hotel, London's Draycott provides impeccable service: discreet staff will ensure that as a guest, the Draycott Hotel becomes your London home.
